

The Company's Policy

Povrchové úpravy Třemošnice Ltd. was founded by registration in the company register at the Regional Court in Hradec Králové on 12th July, 1992.

The company is focused at the galvanic plating of metal products which originate mainly in engineering. The plating is realized in the company includes zink coating, anodic oxidation, phosphate coating, chromating, and alkaline oxidation. The company carries out its business in own area near to DAKO-CZ, joint-stock company, Třemošnice.

The quality and environment protection policy based on the strategic goals of the development of the company. The management of the company is fully aware for the responsibility to meet the customers' requirements as well as requirements of any other party involved, the responsibility for the conditions of environment, and a needs of the continual improvement of the effectiveness for the existing quality and environmental issues management.

We respect the principle of an information and communication openness towards all the parties involved, including local and regional authorities.

We strive to achieve a long-term and mutually profitable cooperation with our suppliers who are chosen with special regards and values which are compatible with ours.

Our goal is to meet our customer' specific requirements, fulfill their needs and expectations, and make them constantly satisfied. We are aware of the fact that we are responsible for customers' property. We accept the principle of high-quality treatment of the parts and delivery to the customer ontime. We provide high-quality metal plating for the reasonable price. We prefer helpfulness and kindness during bussines meetings.

We strive to develop a prosperity and the image of our company, and to extend its existing newtwork of clients both in the Czech Republic and Europe.

Obviously, it is special trainings for our employees for the galvanic plating, product quality, workplace safety, and environment friendliness that make the higher product quality and improvement of knowledge our employees. Anyone who is working for the company approaches the environment issues in a responsible way, which minimalizes the company's impact on the environment. We want to exclude any human and business negligence and indifference from our behaviour.

We guarantee the sources that are needed for ensuring and developing the system of quality and environment, and other activities.

We use the best technologies that are environmentally friendly and effective prevention methods, as well.

We follow all the lawful regulations and meet all the legal and other requirements related to our business.

We dispose our salt spray test chamber WEISS SC-450 and a radiographic measurement device Xray MaXXi which is used for measuring the thickness of surface treatment layer. We make a use of corrosion resistance tests to raise the stability of surface treatment processes and to ensure the coveted working life of products.

We monitor all the important aspects of our production, processes and services, their impact on the environment and all possible quality determinants of the products, processes and services that are required.